GUNNERS FIRE AT PLUIM PARK

CENTRAL COAST 1
RYDE CITY 2

Mark Fowler was at Pluim Park

Scott Ollerenshaw wrecked Central Coast's first home appearance of the 1999 Super League season with two smartly taken goals.

With the Coasties ahead 1-0 and looking solid in defence, Ollerenshaw headed home a superb cross from the right to make it 1-1 after 66 minutes, and just eleven minutes later got the winner after some lovely interchange play saw him slip the ball past goalkeeper Gary Meier.

In a scrappy game neither team was able to dominate the play, and both teams gave the ball away far too often.

The first half was a tame effort, with neither side really having an effort of note. That changed with a strange goal though in the 36th minute.

Coasties leading scorer, Nathan Byrn turned smartly on the edge of the penalty area and struck a shot goalwards. The ball rolled into the back of the net with Ryde goalkeeper Les Bihari wrong-footed and unable to move. The softness of the goal suggested that Byrn miss-hit his shot, although I am sure he wasn't saying that in the dressing sheds after the game!

That made it 5 in 6 starts for Byrn, who was actually released by the Coasties last year. Officials were surprised to see him turn up this year for trials, however Coach Allan Bourke took a gamble that is paying off handsomely. One feels Byrn is also doing his best to prove the club were right to take him back on.

The second half saw more action, with the Coasties forced into a reshuffle as the impressive Dave Maltby was unable to restart the half, Bourke bringing on Derryk Kane. Just two minutes after the break, Byrn had a good chance to make it 2-0 but

Ryde started moving forward on the hour mark. A run of great determination by Adam Peatey saw him beat 3 defenders before firing wide, then just six minutes later came Ollerenshaw's first.

Ryde lifted after the goal, and could have twice scored in the next couple of minutes. Byrn gave them a warning though after 69 minutes, his clever curling effort just clearing the bar.

Ollerenshaw's second sealed the game for the Gunners, who celebrated their first win of the year.

Coasties coach Bourke was disappointed with the result, especially playing at home after a good start playing away. He praised Ollerenshaw and Ryde sweeper Craig Moffit, saying Ollerenshaw had been fairly quiet but was still good enough to pop up twice and put the ball away.

An even game this one, but the finishing of former Socceroo Ollerenshaw proved the difference between the teams.

DEMONS TOO DEVILISH FOR THE TIGERS

BLACKTOWN CITY 3 LEICHHARDT TIGERS 0

Paul Goodwin was at The Gabbie

There was never any doubting Blacktown's intention when they stepped out onto The Gabbie to confront an in-form Leichhardt Tigers on a steamy March night last Saturday.

Coach Brian Brown left his star striker John Angelucci on the bench and persevered with a two-prong attack, Jason Bennett and Stuart Cleary striking up a good understanding from the outset.

Brown wanted his players to get in behind the Tigers' defence, he admitted afterwards, and this they did in convincing style.

They panicked the Leichhardt players into mistake after mistake, and as early as the second minute were almost presented with a goal as keeper Frank Mikuletic cleared straight to the feet of Cleary, who almost stretched too hard to reach the stray ball and stabbed it wide from 12 yards out.

Cleary soon recovered from what at first appeared to be a strained muscle, but Mikuletic, under almost constant pressure for most of the game, never put a foot wrong thereafter.

The Demons had some good early chances, Steve Cutler nodding a cross from Matthew Lowe wide in the 11th after an earlier corner had been flicked on by Cleary and hastily cleared.

Hassan Kdouh thought he had good claims for a penalty for Leichhardt when given a nudge from behind by Damien Foxe, as he broke clear in the 23rd minute, but his enthusiasm to convince referee Matthew Breeze of his inconvenience earned him, instead, the only yellow card of the game.

Hassan, it was, who had done better earlier by stealing the ball in midfield, sending David James away down the left and with Chris Lansdown in support, watching the creative James slice a shot wide of the right post by only inches.

Around the same time, Blacktown hit the lead. Peter Sermanni did what his coach had asked for and got to the right byline, before delivering a perfect, deep cross, for the accomplished Cleary to meet with a measured header wide on the edge of the six yard box.

As Leichhardt worked hard to get back in the game the Demons scored a second less than a minute before the break.

Aaron Holst provided the final pass which allowed Bennett to hit the centre of the net from just 10 yards out, after a series of earlier attempts had been interrupted by a sea of legs. Blacktown had managed to get several players into the box and the pressure paid dividends.

Blacktown continued to impress with their flair and team cohesion, another good scoring opportunity coming in the 56th.

Cleary pushed a long ball on for Chris Bradley to chase and the central midfield player also cut the ball back from the byline, to the centre of the goalmouth where Damien Brown's shot had to be beaten away by Mikuletic.

Kdouh, like his partner up front Chris Lansdown, always firing on all cylinders, nearly dragged a goal back in the 58th when he rattled the left post after a superb pass from the marauding Tom Bazdaric.

Bradley managed to create some good chances for the Demons in the last half hour or so. His clever chip aimed for the top right corner of the net was seen late by the keeper and tipped over in the 59th and then a neat lob over the heads of defenders saw Cleary run through and shoot only for Mikuletic to perform heroics once more in the 66th.

Cleary could have had more goals, were it not for the keeper and should have had another when substitute John Angelucci strolled through from half way to confront the keeper, but with Cleary free beside him, elected to shoot and was again disappointed by the custodian's save.

Angelucci was denied again by the keeper in the 88th, but not before Cleary had sealed the 3-0 win with a perfectly timed, glancing, near-post header to a well directed Steve Riches corner on the right in the 85th.

As an indication of their eventual superiority, the Demons managed 13 corners to just 2 by their opponents during an always entertaining match.

Players to shine for Blacktown were Cleary, Bradley and Lowe, while Leichhardt's best were Mikuletic, Kdouh and Lansdown.

The win lifts Blacktown back into the top four and brought them their fourth win from six outings.

MACARTHUR MAINTAIN LEAD AT TOP OF TABLE

MACARTHUR RAMS 2 BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS 0

Macarthur Rams maintained their lead at the top of the Super League table with a hard-fought victory over the Bankstown City Lions.

Goals from David Reid and Eric Williams sealed the victory for the Rams, although it was not without a few scares.

In the 3rd minute a header by Robert Issa was saved by John Crawley, then the big goalkeeper had to be quick to cut out a through ball from veteran midfielder Mile Todoroski. In the 13th minute a shot by Kiro Grozdanovski whistled just wide, and Bankstown must have fancied their chances.

On 21 minutes though came a sucker punch from the Rams. A superb through ball by Kain Rastell found David Reid. Reid went to the byline before cutting the ball back for Williams to make it 1-0.

If that was hard on the Lions, then just 9 minutes later Macarthur made it 2-0. David Reid went down the right before hitting the ball goalwards. His effort was deflected and finally came to nestle in the back of the net.

Bankstown came out in the second half and started as they did the first - on the attack. A shot by Mica Hawrysiuk was saved by Crawley, then a shot by Tony Josevski was deflected wide. Another Hawrysiuk effort, this time direct from a free kick was also directed wide, before Macarthur had a couple of late chances. Rastell had a chance to make it 3-0 to the Rams but shot wide past Leo Premutico in Bankstown's goal, while in the very last minute Eric Williams hit the post for the Rams.

Veteran goalkeeper Gary Meier punches clear under pressure.

BONNYRIGG DOWN SHARKS

Sutherland Sharks 1 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3

Greg Stock was at Seymour Shaw Park

Bonnyrigg White Eagles served notice that their 1999 season is back on track when they outclassed a courageous Sutherland side on Saturday evening at Seymour Shaw Park. A large vocal crowd provided the backdrop to a match that thrilled the spectators from start to finish. Both sides played an attacking style on a warm and steamy evening but it was the visitors who went home all three points through goals to Gomez, Racker and Luff.

Bonnyrigg coach John Turner was forced to omit talented midfielder Paul Dee from his squad after he succumbed to a troublesome groin injury midweek while young midfielder Ben Green made his first full appearance for the side. For the first time in eight months Sutherland welcomed back Sam Moszny to the side after a layoff with knee and groin problems with Aaron Harris also included in the starting eleven.

The game started brightly with both sides content on playing attacking football but Bonnyrigg could have been in severe trouble in the eighth minute when a Craig Hobbs cross was accidentally headed backwards by Borislav Dragas forcing his own goalkeeper Bozic to tip the ball over the bar. But by the 18th minute the Eagles were flying high. Colin Luff did the hard-work in the midfield and released his striking partner Robert Gomez with a beautiful pass to the left. Gomez ran onto the ball drew Dennis Olla and layed the ball in the back of the net.

Sutherland started to surrender their resistance in midfield and a series of chances fell to the Eagles side. In the 24th minute Jimmy Corbo recieved a yellow card for a deliberate handball and 8 minutes later he got another when he bought down Robert Gomez just outside the penalty box. Referee Spiroski had no hesitation in sending Corbo for an early shower and all of a sudden the Sharks looked extremely vulnerable.

A succession of Eagles chances could not create another opening but the game again turned in the forty first minute when the Eagles midfield general Paul Richardson lashed out at Craig Hobbs in a tackle and was also given his marching orders. The big crowd was stunned if not only for a minute until Levi Stephen sent Craig Hobbs a lovely through ball which he struck from the edge of the penalty box. Goalkeeper Bozic was as brilliant as the shot and sent the ball just wide of the post.

If the first half was enteratining the second half was edge of the seat stuff as both sides pushed forward searching for a goal. The Sharks made an immediate impact two minutes into the second half when they were awarded a freekick in the far left corner after Hobbs was fouled. Up stepped Matthew Richardson who unleashed an inch perfect kick to the far post where Levi Stephen was waiting unmarked to head home. The former Scottish junior international was again on the scoresheet and suddenly we had a ball game.

With Bonnyrigg continuing to exert pressure on the Sutherland defence Sharks sweeper Mal Bideau was caught out badly at the back in the 54th minute. In his only blemish for the night his defensive clearance was blocked off the boot by Mark Racker. The Eagles defender simply picked up the crumbs and drew Dennis Olla forward before slotting home truely.

Sutherland coach John Lavin introduced teenager Kris Karanasas a few minutes later and he made an immediate impact. His speed up front was a constant threat to the big Eagles defenders and when he dribbled through some feeble defence in the 68th minute he looked set to score on debut, only to over-elaborate in his final touch and make an easy save for Sasha Bozic.

A minute later the ball game suddenly swung to the visitors. Two raids forward in as many minutes saw Colin Luff have two opportunities to score the winner only to have Harris and Markopoulos intervene on the line and clear the ball. It was only a matter of time as the clock wound down. Nine minutes from time the points were safely Bonnyrigg's when a David Harding through ball found Colin Luff and he slotted away truly past an advancing Olla.

In the Bonnyrigg rooms coach John Turner was ecstatic with the result. After last weeks disappointment where he thought they should have got all three points the club is now back on track. "We probably should have had four or five tonight but for some poor finishing" he said but was still very happy with his charges. After the dismissal of midfield organiser Paul Richardson he was forced to reshuffle his midfield but the others did a fantastic job to make up for the loss. Turner also singled out young Ben Green for praise and predicted a bright future for the young midfielder.

John Lavin in the Sharks rooms was a little subdued but was quick to point out he has a young side, that will only learn from the match. A few vital mistakes at the back in vital stages of the match was the difference between the two sides but he looked to Levi Stephen, Craig Hobbs and Malcolm Bideau for special mention. The debut of sixteen year old Kris Karanasas was a highlight as was the defensive work of Aaron Harris.

Bonnyrigg face another away trip this week to the unpredictable Central Coast outfit at Pluim Park. With the likely return of Paul Dee from injury it should cover the key loss of Paul Richardson who will miss a week with suspension. For the young Sharks side, they'll have to regroup for an away trip to Bankstown on Sunday. With Sam Mozsny approaching full fitness the loss of forward Jimmy Corbo should be overcome while teenager Karanasas did enough to suggest he could be a part of John Lavin's plans again this week.

Sutherland Sharks: Olla, Daley, Harris, Bideau, Richardson (Pillay 79'), Summers (Karanasas 57'), Markopoulos, Stephen, Hobbs, Moszny (Giraldo 69'), Corbo.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles: Bozic, Xuereb, Racker (Savic 87'), Dragas, Gomez, Richardson, Mancino (Nielson 77'), Harding, Luff, Green, Warburton.

FAIRFIELD MARCH ON

Eastern Suburbs 1
Fairfield Bulls 3

Mark Fowler was at Wentworth Park

Fairfield's Martin Borg scored two, set one up and missed a penalty, as he helped former Eastern Suburbs coach Joe Watson to guide his team into second place on the table.

Eastern Suburbs coach John Calleja was disappointed with his team's defending for the goals, and took as some crumb of comfort a better second half performance.

But it was the performance of Borg and fellow striker Mark Hoenselaars that caught the eye in the first half. After just 8 minutes Eastern Suburbs goalkeeper Con Anastasiadis brought down a striker in a one on one situation, and the referee gave a penalty kick after booking the Wanderers custodian. Borg's kick was aimed straight, and although Anastasiadis dived to his right his feet blocked the spot-kick.

Just eight minutes later however Borg got his and Fairfield's first. A free kick from Fairfield's left should have posed little danger, but as two Eastern Suburbs players left it for each other the ball ran onto Borg who couldn't miss.

If that was a soft goal, the second was just as bad. A mix-up in defence just three minutes after the first goal saw sweeper Stevie Lawrence wrong-footed, and left Borg through on goal. After drawing the 'keeper he cooly slotted the ball to strike partner Hoenselaars, who rolled the ball into the empty net and made it 2-0 to the Bulls.

The Bulls looked a year quicker and an inch bigger in the first half, and Borg should have scored his second after 39 minutes. A beautiful move saw the ball switched from midfield to the right wing, where the cross fell for Borg, who side-footed wide.

Although Eastern Suburbs made just one change in personnel at half time, they made a number of positional changes. One of these saw sweeper Lawrence move up-front, which at last gave the team something to aim for. Any hopes of getting back into the game though were dashed when Eastern Suburbs conceded their third soft goal of the afternoon. A corner saw Borg head home virtually unchallenged - or certainly without the sort of challenge a man who had torn the defence apart in the first half should have had.

At this stage a route looked on the cards, but to Eastern Suburbs credit they came back at Fairfield and got back into the game after 54 minutes.

Peter Pullicino notched up his fourth of the season with a superb strike that flashed into the top corner of the net, leaving Fairfield's Dragon Pupovac no chance.

Fairfield seemed to drop off then as Eastern Suburbs hit back, a fact Joe Watson alluded to after the game. Pullicino had a couple more efforts, then as the game wore on Lawrence headed over and then hit the side netting, while Ricky Somboli also shot straight at Pupovac.

One bit of skill really caught the eye though, and that was after 77 minutes. A cross from Fairfield found Borg under immense pressure from the defence, but after taking the ball skillfully on his chest he managed to head the ball goalwards and was only prevented from scoring by Anastasiadis.

It would have been a memorable hat-rick goal.

For Eastern Suburbs Stevie Lawrence battled all day, while Pullicino and Ekinci played well after the latter was moved to sweeper at half time.

Fairfield were well served by their two strikers, while Jason Falzon battled well in midfield and George Zabetakis was solid at sweeper. The day though belonged to Borg, and while starting by missing a penalty wasn't a great start, he certainly made up for it.

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Pullicino, Darville, Lawrence, Stout (Ogmen), Ekinci, Imaya, Sevares, McCombe (Mitakidis), Somboli, Orhan (Nichols)

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Driene, Grubba, Zabetakis, Falzon (Suzor), Hoenselaars (Iocca), Borg, Bourke, Giometti (Mandic), Treharne, Vrankovic

CANTERBURY GET FIRST WIN AT HOME

Canterbury-Marrickville 2 Parramatta Eagles 1

Canterbury-Marrrickville finally secured their first home win at the fourth attempt, although they had goalkeeper Steve Tolios to thank them for the victory.

Twice in early stages of the match Tolios' feet got in the way of goalbound efforts from Malcolm Mielak and Maurico Islas, while the Canterbury-Marrickville custodian also saved well from Grant Bard.

The home side came back before half-time but were unable to convert a number of chances, as Jim Nikas and Simon Fedele shot narrowly wide. On the stroke of half time Nick Bosevski was brought down just outside the penalty area by Jason Holmes, the Parramatta goalkeeper earning himself a yellow card in the process.

Canterbury-Marrickville's goals came in the 66th and 77th minutes. The first followed some great work by the under-rated Simon Fedele, and left Terry Palapnis the chance to make it 1-0.

Eleven minutes later Canterbury-Marrickville sealed victory. Striker Nikas turned provider this time, and Talcevski headed home to make it 2-0.

Parramatta gave the home side a scare by scoring through leading marksman Grant Bard with three minutes to go, and although it looked like a consolation goal Parramatta almost snatched an equaliser.

On the stroke of full time Andrew Dowling's free kick smacked the Canterbury-Marrickville cross-bar, and deep into injury time Alex Araujo saw his shot brilliantly saved by, who else, Tolios!

Canterbury-Marrickville were well served by Palapanis, Tolios and Nikas, while Parramatta's Ahmed Eldridge, Paul O'Grady and Bard performed well.

The win at Henson Park saw Canterbury-Marrickville leap two places in the table, leap-frogging their opppenents in this match on the way.

Canterbury-Marrickville: Tolios, B Raeburn (M Raeburn), Markopoulos, Palapanis, Mendes, Percy, Talcevski, Christoforidis, Bozevski (Jerkovic), Fedele (Hewit), Nikas

ROUND seven PREVIEW

Central Coast v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

The Coasties looked to have a scrappy game against Ryde last week, until two goals from Scott Ollerenshaw turned the game the Gunner's way. Coach Allan Bourke was disappointed to lose at home and admits they face a tough challenge against Bonnyrigg.

Bonnyrigg bounced back from their defeat against Macarthur with a solid away win at Sutherland, and will look to repeat the trick here. They have a poor record at Pluim Park though and will once again look to the skills of Robert Gomez to cause havoc in the Coasties defence.

Fairfield Bulls v Macarthur Rams

Fairfield coach Joe Watson says that although his team are doing well, they must start playing for the full 90 minutes. People expecting the Bulls to slip up could be in for a shock - they still have a lot of improving in them according to Watson.

Macarthur go into this first v second clash in good spirits. Coach Casey de Bruin was spotted at Wentworth Park last week running his eye over the Bulls, and it will be interesting to see what he can come up with.

Super Soccer tip - Macarthur to prove too strong.

Canterbury-Marrickville v Leichhardt Tigers

Canterbury-Marrickville finally won on home soil in 1999 last up against Parramatta, and will look to carry that on against the Tigers. The Tigers defence will have all on keeping the prolific home side's strikeforce quiet.

Leichhardt could have lost by many more than the 3 they conceded to Blacktown, and will look to bounce back here. Although the game at Nineveh is the undoubted tie of the round, this game should be a fascinating duel.

Super Soccer tip - sitting on the fence for this one - a draw.

Bankstown City Lions v Sutherland Sharks

Bankstown were not disgraced against league leaders Macarthur last week, although they missed their top scorer Zoki Adioski. They will fancy their chances bouncing back against the Sharks here.

Sutherland played well against Bonnyrigg last week, and in Levi Stephen have a player to watch. The last two matches here have finished 1-1 draws, and you would suspect the Sharks would be happy with a similiar result.

Super Soccer tip - Bankstown.

Parramatta Eagles v Eastern Suburbs

Parramatta are still waiting to kick start their season, and will see this game as a chance to do just that. The Eagles need to knock a few goals in to get some confidence in front of goal, but they will also need to show Eastern Suburbs some respect.

Eastern Suburbs will be looking to give John Calleja his first win of the season, and much of the game will depend on whether their small strikers can get enough quality ball to ttrouble the Eagles two big stoppers.

Super Soccer tip - A draw

Parramatta Eagles;
Home Record - Played 2 Won 2
Past Five Starts - WLWLL
Top Scorer - Grant Bard 3 goals
Eastern Suburbs;
Away Record - Played 2 Lost 2
Past Five Starts LDLLL
Top Scorer - Peter Pullicino 4 goals
Past Match;
2/8/98 - Parramatta Eagles 2 (Petrovski x2) - Eastern Suburbs 3 (Bennette x2, Moss).

Ryde City v Blacktown City

Ryde celebrated their first win last week, but couldn't have asked for a much more difficult challenge this week. The Gunners are still welcoming players back from injury and will be hard pushed to get anything from this one.

Blacktown seemed to have the dream ticket by adding Jason Bennett to the already potent strike-force of Stuart Cleary and Jon Angelucci, but it hasn't been working. Coach Brian Brown has now settled on just playing two of the three of them, and Angelucci started on the bench last week. They were impressive against Leichhardt and should continue that form against Ryde.

New South Wales

Institute of Sport

Any program that produces the youngest ever Socceroo, the youngest ever Young Socceroo as well as a player who played for Australia at all four levels by the age of 19 must be doing something right.

The youngest ever Socceroo, Harry Kewell, is currently starring for Leeds United in the English Premier League, while Brett Emerton of Sydney Olympic was the player who had played for Australia at all four levels by the age of 19.

The youngest ever Young Socceroo? That must be Mark Byrnes (pictured) who has just been chosen for the Under 20 squad at the age of 17. In fact, Byrnes is still eligible to play for the Under 17 Joey's squad, who he will represent in Fiji after returning from Nigeria. Its also quite possible he will have a number of familiar faces around him - eleven of his colleagues have been invited to the final Joey's traiing camp!

Mark Byrnes

Byrnes has already left with the squad for Nigeria, although the Young Socceroos are training first in Holland and Spain before heading off to Africa.

If the name's mentioned above aren't impressive enough, the same program also helped produce players like Northern Spirit's Matthew Langdon and Daniel Watkins, plus Archie Thompson, Paul Reid, Mark Harries (Crystal Palace) Gareth Edds (Nottingham Forest) Jamie McAllister (Leeds United), as well as two more players who will be joining Leeds, Brad Groves and Shane Cansdell-Sherriff.

The program in question is the New South Wales Elite Development system, the pathway provided by the New South Wales Soccer Federation. The path takes elite players from learning the skills of Coerver Coaching, then through its zone program, through to NSW State teams and then onto the NSW Institute of Sport squad. From there, as some of the players shown above can testify, the sky is the limit.

Byrne's inclusion in the young Socceroos has delighted NSW Institute of Sport head coach Kelly Cross.

"Mark is a great athlete, two-footed, prepared to listen and he's also probably our quickest player," said Cross. "We could play him anywhere on the pitch."

Cross is well qualified to talk about such things, as this Level 3 instructor also came first in a three-week residential course in the UK.

"I was proud of my achievements on courses here, but I wanted more," said Cross. "So I went to England in 199 and studied for the FA International Coaching Diploma."

Cross has also helped Les Scheinflug on seven national team camps with the Joeys and Young Socceroo's.

absent: Peter Gavaghan, Bradley Groves, George Fallah (Manager)

It is the young players of the NSWIS program that are gaining the benefits of this experience. Current captain Simon Catanzaro says," The Institute has made me. I needed help with my diet and I had to improve my speed when I joined the squad two years ago. Kelly has also taught me what runs to make to get myself into scoring positions."

Has this work paid off? Well Simon has scored 16 goals in 20 games in the National Youth league...

The current intake at the Institute of Sport are no slouches. They currently sit in fourth place in the national Youth league, which is no mean feat when their average age is 16 and they are playing in an Under 20 league.

"Its our best season to date," said Cross."The boys are incredibly sharp and can also physically match it with the older boys and even the first graders that play in the competition."

Its not all down to Cross though, as he is the first to admit he has some great help from his staff.

Greg Ankudinoff is the Assistant Coach at the NSW Institute of Sport.

"Its been great to have been involved these last two years,: said Ankudinoff. "I've had offers to coach first grade clubs, but I love working with the cream of Australia's young players. Years ago I coached NSW State teams with the likes of (Mark) Bosnich and (Paul) Okon - these boys are in the same mould."

Apart from Ankudoff, Cross has other staff at his disposal. "Cheryl Burns is our trainer and massage therapist, and she works wonders on rehabilitation, especially in the pool. However, our stretching program and warm-ups and cool downs have kept injuries to a minimum."

David Buttifant advises on conditioning programs and Gareth Adamson supervises the strength program.

"Our goalkeeping coach is John Crawley, who played professionally in Chile. He has been used a number of times by Raul Blanco and Les Scheinflug with national teams," Cross adds. "Plus our specialist skills coaching is conducted by Oscar Gonzalez, who I believe is the best in the country."

With such a professional program being run by professional people, its no wonder Australia has such good youth teams - or why the set-up gets envious glances from overseas!

1999 SEASON

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ILLAWARRA LIONS ON FIRE AT START OF THE SEASON

It really does look as if this time Illawarra Lions are going to be the team to beat after a disappointing time in 1998.

Coach Lube Jancev was concerned last season that he had not had time to prepare his players properly or to sign new ones, but with plenty of opportunity to make amends for 1999 he seems to be well on track in the southern Wollongong club's aim of regaining Super League status in the very near future.

Two of his new signings came up trumps in Marshall Soper who led from the front, or more accurately from the back as he adopted a sweeper's role for his new side and looks like being a regular in the starting line up, unlike recent seasons where he has dabbled very successfully in coaching.

Right from the off Moorebank, the Lions' opponents at a sun-drenched Moorebank Park, were overwhelmed by their visitor's polished approach. As early as the fourth minute the defence was caught napping by Valentin Tasevski who seized on his chance well. Jim Melissourgos showed that he has lost none of his scoring prowess after a 'lost season' last year when he appeared sporadically for Eastern Suburbs and the Hurstville Minotaurs, often in a deep lying midfield role.

Melissourgos claimed a hat trick as Illawarra won 4-0 with one of big Jim's goals a classic towering header which delighted the crowd.

While they will meet much tougher teams than Moorebank who will take time to settle, things look a lot better than they did at the same time last year when the Lions were far from convincing early on.

First Division newcomers Dulwich Hill found country visitors raring to go at Arlington Oval, discovering as others have done before them that the visitors always do well early in the season.

Bathurst had Scott Mutton back in the side and the all round sportsman took less than a minute to find the net. Dulwich got on level terms in the 44th through Zlatko Momircevski, but succumbed to a Mark Rooke goal in the 88th which gave Bathurst a morale boosting win at the start of the new season.

Bathurst had other chances to score, with Rooke denied by the keeper in the 30th after a swift break down the left and a cross to the well placed blond striker.

Momircevski also could have scored before driving home the equaliser as he was on the edge of the area in the 32nd but after a good turn, smashed the ball over the bar.

Momircevski's goal came after a good move down the left by the popular John Sherry whose cross was, as ever, inch perfect.

A tense second half looked like ending scoreless, but a deceptive passage of play down the right by Bathurst saw them hoodwink the defence for Mark Rooke to finish the move off nicely.

A C United began their season in brilliant sunshine at Abruzzi Oval in Wetherill Park against an unknown Auburn outfit.

Creative midfielder Leo Pintos gave AC the lead in the 20th which they clung to until Robertson found a chink in the home side's armour in the 63rd to send shock waves through the side coached by ex Socceroo Tony Henderson.

Fortunately one of last year's stars of Hajduk Wanderers' wonderful season in 2nd Division where they completed the double and went undefeated for 24 games, Nino Marvello rescued his new side with a brace of goals inside the last 20 minutes.

Penrith Panthers welcomed a large crowd to Nepean Rugby Oval where Hurstville City Minotaurs were the attraction.

It could be a much tougher year than last for the Minotaurs judging by this result, though Penrith usually seem to do well against this particular opponent.

Danny Hinton netted in the 9th and

Penrith Panthers welcomed a large crowd to Nepean Rugby Oval where Hurstville City Minotaurs were the attraction.

Brad Collier extended the Panthers' lead in the 14th , but it was the goal by Chris Ackerley that was most pleasing. Ackerley, whose father Stan, the former Socceroo, has coached here for many years, has been out of action for almost a year with a badly broken arm and his 38th minute strike signalled that he was back in a big way.

Another district side, Manly - Warringah, had a good come back to report when they took on Rockdale Suns at Cromer Park.Gerry Gomez, the Rockdale player-coach, headed his side into the lead on the quarter hour and it was looking as if the big guns from the southern suburbs might be on the way to a high scoring win.Instead the Dolphins came back and Kelvin Foster put them level in the 37th.

A goal seconds before the break by newcomer Damon Pih put Manly in front and another by the same player ensured that the seaside club began the season in winning vein.

With his two goals the unknown Pih was the man of the match, but he had good support from the rest of the side for whom Damien Rosenthal was much too quick for the Rockdale side on occasions.

The win completed a clean sweep for Manly who won both of the lower grade games 2-1.

The main feature of the day was at St George Stadium where newly relegated St George managed to hold out a fluent Stanmore Hawks outfit.

Both coaches saw the game positively. Eddie Briscoe was pleased with the quality of the football and is looking forward to his Scottish striker Malcolm Adams joining the side next week after his honeymoon in the old country.

St George' Paul Carter was also pleased to have earned a point from one of the best team's in the division. Though weakened by the absence through injury of many key players and suffering further knocks during the game, Carter was proud of his basically young side's ability to restrict Stanmore to strikes from outside the box. There were a few anxious moments when high balls were crossed in and a sequence of Stanmore players offered headers which were either just wide or pushed away by a busy Trinity Allen in the Saints' goal.

Despite being under the cosh for most of the second half, St George could have snatched a win in the 64th when Carter sent Stefan Janic through, who in turn fed Dounis, but the prolific scorer hesitated long enough, and stand-in keeper Georgiou was off his line like a shot to smother the danger.

The first half had offered much more to St George who were best served by Janic who managed a couple of good shots which Georgiou had to be alert to deal with including one point blank save.

Stanmore also had new signing Con Paradisis on song and he and Socrates Bakafoukas carried the attack well, without much luck.

A point earned by St George and as it was an away game the Hawks probably saw it much the same way afterwards too.

PREVIEW

What a great game to start the home season for Bathurst! A visit by the hot Illawarra Lions on Saturday at Alex Lamberton, a game which Bathurst may well win and raise a few more eyebrows.

Auburn tackle St George at Mona Park on Sunday in a game the Saints should just about win. Stanmore entertain Penrith Panthers at Arlington Oval and will need to keep it tight to earn the spoils. The Hawks are favoured to win, but this game could produce its share of goals in the process.

Rockdale Suns are at home to AC United with a win needed to keep their season on track, a win for them being the most likely outcome.

Moorebank won't find Manly-Warringah much easier than Illawarra were at Hammondville Park and could be a few runs short of their best. The Dolphins may have a few goals to show for their efforts in this one.

Finally Hurstville City Minotaurs are to meet Dulwich Hill at home and may be able to pick up a point if they can keep it tight.

Division two Preview

SEASON AND FIRST ROUND

This weekend sees the start of the NSW Second Division season which promises to be one of the best in many years.

Four of last year's clubs have gone, promoted Dulwich Hill and three others, two of whom were relegated, Liverpool City and Parramatta City.

The third Gladesville United pulled out a few weeks ago when it became clear that they could not field an under 18 side.

This has meant further shuffling down and around in the lower divisions, but has been a godsend for Fraser Park, the club which won Fourth Division last year. Already promoted to 3rd Division the go-ahead Sydenham based club put their hand up when nominations were called for to fill the late vacancy, after those clubs who were next in line declined.

With no qualms about the Under 18 commitment Fraser Park, who played in the 1st Division a few years ago under the name of Rosebery, are well equipped to take the step up in grade. They spent the past few years developing their own ground at the former Railway Sports Club and were allowed to drop down through the divisions until a concerted effort last year saw them clear out to win the title under Gerry Gomez. This year new coach Tony Dunn built a side which he was confident would win promotion and which he felt was almost up to First Division standard. It was therefore not hard to see why the club was keen to take this chance when offered.

Luke McGuire and Sam Krslovic will contest the keeper's jersey, while the club is well endowed with good defenders such as Ennio Morson, Charlie Morales - last year's 2nd Division medal winner - Ante Zizic and Matthew Remondos.

Creative players like Zaya Jebraiel, Matthew Zec, Jon Flack, John Papalanis and Con Alexander will also help their cause. Two overseas players, Chris Gibson and Sean Strang add to the broad mix of nationalities at the largely Portuguese-supported club.

Of the relegated division Mount Pritchard, Hills United and Belmore are all strong clubs which will enhance the 2nd Division profile. They were unfortunate that they filled the bottom positions in a year when 3 went down. Hills United have a new coach in Fred Meseti and an almost entire new team.

After being relegated during the off season , none of the Hills first grade players returned to the club for 1999.

At the club restructuring has occurred and there is a totally new committee which has worked extremely hard and has been rewarded with sponsorship deals with both Pioneer and Umbro.

The three state league teams have had to be built from scratch with completely new coaches, managers, goal keeper coach and physio.

The club has done well to pick up the talented Nils Johsson on loan from Ryde City , Steven Butcher, who played with Manly-Warringah two years ago, Daniel Fraser and Frank Malgiolio who have all played at this level before.

Hills may take a while to hit their straps, but could still be a useful outfit at this level.

Mount Pritchard has a new coach in Darryl Glover and quite a few new faces, while with Belmore we shall just have to wait and see.

Mounties usually mean business and this year should prove no exception. They have lost Scott Spurway, Pat Barilla, Nick Markovski and Mark Barroccu, but the arrival of John Cosentino and the return of his cousin Franco will add strength as will Ian Stoddart's re-appearance. Brett Smyth comes in too, with Clinton Green and Les Goldsworthy.

The team still has Greg Baldock and Cary Bangs, but otherwise only keeper Matthew Darwen remains of the squad from last year. Most exciting news is the promotion of Under 16 team member Henry Schapers a player who will be watched with great interest when he takes the big step into first grade.

There are two college sides this year, a first at this level and a major asset to the Federation as both teams are going to provide a stern test to the more conventional clubs who may have higher ambitions, but no greater commitment to success during the season.

Sydney University have lost Dave Donnelly to Bathurst 75, but are otherwise the 98 Grand Final squad which augurs well for the club and its highly respected coach Jim Gallagher.

The club has signed a new stopper, Mark Dearden, from last year's Grand Final opponents Camden Tigers and bring in Scott Barlow from the Tasmanian First Division with Juventus and Uni of Tasmania teams.

Striker Rob Smithies and old hand Don Brown will relish the return to a stronger competition this year.

The other student side, University of NSW may find the going tough this year. They had a lean 1998 by their standards and only avoided the drop in the closing weeks by beating the other cellar dwellers in sequence. A 7-0 trial drubbing at the hands of Arncliffe does not auger well, unless they can pick up some quality players in the next month or so.

One of the most consistent sides in recent years is Hurstville ZSC an offshoot of the successful Sydney United community based in the southern suburbs. They have a very settled outfit well cared for by John Gagro and they always figure prominently with their stylish soccer and good team discipline. Veteran Ivan Pavelic has been the only player to go, while Alain Pavelic, Vjekolav Zoric, Mario Mrkic and Tom Milicevic come in.

The regular presence of Tony Mihaljevic, who joined them late last season, will be a big boon to them as they have always had good creative players but a need for a strong finisher. Bob Simunic filled that role to some extent as well as Gary Deprato and Stipe Milicevic, but the whole team is one that is not afraid to go forward to goals are usually spread around with big Bob Barisic, relative newcomer Robert Babaic and Tom Prusac all likely to chime in at some stage.

Ante Buntic and Peter Vrlic will again be the linchpins of the defence with Robert Harmat showing his customary dash as well as the assurance at the back of Ante Majestic. Expect Hurstville to figure prominently again.

Having looked at all of the clubs mentioned above, the one they all have to beat, last year's premiers, Hajduk Wanderers, are stronger than ever and sure to settle for nothing less than promotion this time.

Their misfortune was to come up against another club, Dulwich Hill, which was equally ambitious and shared an unbeaten and identical record with them all season. They drew twice against one another and it was only goal difference which handed the Wanderers the premiership. They then went on to win then Grand Final, but in the traditional play-off for sides that finish equal on points, they went down 1-0 to their year-long adversaries in a thrilling contest at Lambert Park.

One of their stars that day, albeit in a losing side, was David James and he has moved on to Leichhardt in Super League. Many others might be good enough to do the same one day. Peter Banicivic has moved back to Sydney United, while Nino Marvello and John Polombit and Andy Cutajar are yet to affirm their plans.

They club has brought in ex West Wanderers and Ryde City star Jim Boudaher and ex St George striker Tony Krslovic, along with Chris Rasmus from Liverpool City, Steven Scotti and Trent Holmes from St George. Trent Worrel returns from Leichhardt Tigers to give this side, to be coached once again by Phil Pavela, a nigh on unbeatable look about it.

J J Ellul will be a key midfield player again and is joined by brother Tony this season. Michael Pfeifer and Jack Costello are others with great flair who, along with the promising Paul Croci make Hajduk a team that everyone will want to see in action regularly. Darren Cross retains the goalkeeping duties and the club has good back up in defence in Chris Senet, Jason Vella and Darren Camilleri.

Arncliffe have been trialling very well, going down narrowly to St George in the last trial on Tuesday of last week and they have picked up some useful players, including keeper Angelo Rodic.

Greystanes are always tough customers and may have regrouped after a slow season which picked up after the midway point last year.

Most of last year's solid team remains, still coached by Mark Critttenden, the club's former captain whose brother Darren is one of the mainstays of the forward line. While one or two of last term's players have departed, the return of Brendon Wilson is welcomed and the signing of former Mount Pritchard men Neil Mineeff and Anthony Crea will be a boon.

David Apps will once more be between the posts for a team which always boasts a strong defence. He will be supported by Under 21 keeper Christian Griffith-Jones. Among those promoted from the reserves this year will be Scott Harris and along with stalwarts like Michael Grass, Alby Kidd, Brad Racker, Todd Harper and Darren Waterson he will help form a formidable force in this division once again.

Mount Druitt always show some vigour and this campaign should be no exception.

This year they will be skippered by prolific scorer 28 year old Paul Graham and the Town Rangers' team should always be respected.

They will have last year's successful Under 18 coach at the controls in first grade this time.

Sydney District are moving to a new ground after sharing Fraser Park last season and using the Wills Ground in past years. The nomadic Spanish Club seem set to use Camdenville Oval this time and that is where the Iberian derby which opens the season is to be staged.

District have a new coach in Michael Rinos and several players have come in. Robert Mustapic have moved in from Moorebank, Daniel Lemos and Heber Silla from The Wanderers, Christian Araujo from Colo Colo, Pablo Carmona from Alexander, Evan Murtagy and Travis Bowles from Macquarie University.

The season opener sees them pitted against long time rivals Fraser Park and with the quality of the opposition it is going to be one heck of a game.

Don't discard the visitors, even though they have stepped up two levels in one leap.

University of NSW have the toughest possible opener with a visit by hot title favourites Hajduk Wanderers. Anything other than a resounding Wanderers win would be a major shock, though the students may dispute that and will be looking to contain their much vaunted opponents, perhaps looking for a draw.

Greystanes will make life hard for traditional slow starters Hurstville ZSC at the well-turfed Bathurst Street Park, which is almost a bastion for the western suburbs club. A draw would be no surprise at this stage of the season.

Arncliffe take on relegated Hills United at their rustic Scots Field headquarters which has been re-grassed after a poor surface was reported regularly last term. The home side is very capable and it would seem a tall order for Hills to come out of it with much in the way of points.

Mount Pritchard tackles the impressive Sydney University at Mounties home ground, Cook Park, which has added seating for spectators this year, but alas little added shelter, a feature which may come later on. Those who attend should be served up a good brand of football with a close result in prospect, with the leaning to the promoted students who have kept a settled side on the park.

There is but one Saturday game in the first round, Belmore having switched their game with Mount Druitt to Arlington Oval where a tense encounter is forecast.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE ROUND TWO REVIEW

Sydney Olympic Juniors continued their flying start to the season with another clean sweep in all four grades on the weekend. After defeating the Central Coast in Round One action, this time they defeated Southern Branch away from home, in the process becoming the only team in the competition with 8 wins from 8.

The did so only conceding one goal as well, winning 6-0 in G13, 2-0 in G14, 5-0 in G15 and 4-1 in G16. Already last year's champions are taking on an ominous look, as they settle at the top of the table with a plus 33 goal difference. They also lead each age group table apart from G16, where they are second only on goal difference to Blacktown.

In second place on the combined table is Southern Districts. They also won all four grades in Round One, and looked have another clean sweep on the cards when they beat the Sutherland Sharks 2-0 in G13, 1-0 in G14 and 2-1 in G15. The closeness of the games continued though as the Sharks held the G16' s in a 1-1 draw.

Marconi moved up from 4th to 3rd after some tight tussles with the Macarthur Rams. A 1-1 draw in G13's was followed up with wins in the other age groups 3-1 in G14's, 3-0 in G15's and 3-1 in G16's for Marconi.

Newcastle used home advantage well at the Breakers Stadium, defeating Manly Warringah in all four grades. The Breakers G13's and G15's picked up their first wins, as Newcastle were victorious in G13 4-0, 1-0 in G14, 6-0 in G15's and 4-2 in G16's.

The Central Coast Juniors have had the misfortune of playing two strong clubs in Sydney Olympic and Blacktown City in the first two rounds, and results have gone accordingly. Blacktown won all four grades without conceding a goal, although the Coasties recovered after their G13's lost 9-0, losing by the more respectable margins of 2-0 in G14's, 3-0 in G15's and 3-0 in G16's. The victories here moved Blacktown up into fourth spot.

Leichhardt's record after the 8 matches is won 4 and lost 4. They performed well against the Parramatta Eagles, winning G13's 2-1, G15's 2-0 and G16's 1-0. Continuing the tight games, the Eagles G14's picked up their second win of the season, winning 2-1.

Gladesville-Hornsby has the same record as Leichhardt, as they picked up just one win from their home matches with Wollongong Wolves. The Wolves picked up victories in G13's 6-1, G14's 2-1 and G16's 2-1, but the G15's were defeated 3-1.

Sydney United recovered from their shaky start in Round One in defeating Eastern Suburbs in all four grades. Their were comfortable wins for the G13' s 4-1, G14's 3-1, G15's 4-0 and G16's 3-0.

Division One Youth League - Round Two

Three clubs have a 100% record after Round One of the Division One Youth League.

Bankstown Association sit on top of the table after just conceding one goal in their victory over Canterbury-Marrickville, AC United defeated Rockdale City Suns in some close games, while Illawara Lions defeated Stanmore.

Bankstown Association started the rot for Canterbury-Marrickville in the G13, winning 7-0, and the G14 won 2-0, G15 2-0 and G16 4-1. AC United traveled to Rockdale and came away winning 5-1 in G13, 3-1 in G14, and 2-1 in both G15 and G16.

Illawara victories over Stanmore also had some close games, non more so than the G15's, which the Lions won 5-4. In the other age groups the G13's won 3-0, G14's 2-1 and Grade 16's 4-2.

At Valentine Sports Park Ryde City were looking good against Penrith Panthers, winning 2-1 in G13's and 3-1 in G14's, but the Panthers came back to win 1-0 in G15's and 2-0 in G16's.

There was a similar story at Hills United, where Hills took on the Blacktown Association. After losing G13's 1-0 and G14's 4-1, Hills came back and won G15's 3-0 and G16's 2-0.

Fairfield Bulls won their G15's match 2-1 with Bonnyrigg and drew 1-1 in G16's. However the boys from Bonnyrigg had proved too strong in the G13's, winning 3-0 and 4-1 in the G15's.

In the other match of the day Canterbury Association looked to be on for a clean sweep against St George, as they took both the G13's and G14's 3-1, and won the G15's 2-0. A 1-0 victory to the St George G16's stopped that though.
